POWER IN COLORS

The Cosmic Moment has struck, Beloved Ones, when the Ascended Masters call you to Victory and Freedom in the Light! Every clean, clear constructive color is a focus of certain rates of vibration. If you wear such colors, your feeling, your mind, and the substance of your bodies absorbs the rates of vibration—which means the action of the energy within those colors. That is only a very small amount of the responsibility each one of us has in choosing the colors of our clothing and environment. What we choose to experience ourselves is one thing. What we wear that others will have to look at is a far greater responsibility, because that other one will have to look at the conditions and qualities which are radiating from those colors. When we do something that affects hundreds or thousands or many thousands, we have set into action a cause that carries far greater effect than just our own personal desires; and yet, everything we do to the rest of the world must come back into us.

The Power in constructive colors is far greater than people dream and is knowledge that every human being should be taught from babyhood. The standard by which we should always compare color is that of the rainbow. Nature is filled with color because it is a very necessary part of the activity of Life, and one of the paramount reasons for producing the Perfection for the individual, the Nation, or the world. One can read the quality in another person's feeling and consciousness through the color of clothing in the environment which predominates in that one's use, whether it be the clothing of the body or the decoration of the environment. One can do that as easily as he can see the hand before the face. When once you understand this Mighty Ascended Master Law of the "I AM" and the Power of Light and Colors, you will positively bring yourself into alignment with it and have the great blessings which It gives.

Life originally designed the magnificent beauty of the outer world to be filled with glorious, clean, clear color—and use that as the enfolding radiance around persons, places, conditions, and things. Destructive forces, which always insist on wearing black, red, or the dirty shade of various combinations, reveal their own destructive intent, their desires, and the habits of their thoughts and feelings by the choice of those colors. The very desire within a person for destructive colors is due to some misunderstanding of the Truth of the Law of Life or to the deliberate choice of destructive desires within that one's feeling.

People do not dream how they reveal the qualities in their emotional bodies by the direct result of the accumulation of energy which has been charged into those feelings of some particular quality. For instance, a person who loves red does so because there is an accumulation of energy which has been built through irritation or anger, and the forces that try to destroy such a person gain energy from the color of red; and that becomes their sustaining power of the irritation or anger which is the habit of the individual. The person who constantly wants black around himself or herself has something in the feeling world which likes and wants to feel hatred or depression, even to the point of death. Black will positively destroy whatever is held constantly within it.

Notice in the commercial world the almost constant depression or hatred that touches the feelings of those who work always surrounded by darkness or who constantly handle black materials. There is always unrest and discord in the feelings of those who are constantly absorbing the radiation of that black. When people insist on wearing black clothing, they are deliberately absorbing the quality of hate and so-called death into their feelings, their bodies, and their affairs. That is unfortunate enough. When you realize they are deliberately pouring hatred and depression into the feeling, minds and bodies of other individuals who look at them, then you will begin to realize how and why mankind has not been rising above its self-created limitations of the centuries.

Whatever form and color your eyes see, your feelings instantly absorb. When you go to the movies and see something that makes you either laugh or cry, you have only seen form and color; yet the quality they contain entered into your feeling world and qualified the energy in you with their feelings and action. What your attention rests upon, you become. If the form of a person in the movies portrays humor or joy, and you look at that person's picture, you become that humor or joy. If you do not see it with your eyes, then you do not become that humor or the happiness.

If your attention sees that which has the quality of grief, you become that grief—unless you make conscious effort to shut it out.

And all that takes place in you through your eyes. Just so are you absorbing every instant whatever quality is in your world around you from either your clothing or the environment, from the walls of the rooms you live in or work in, and from everything your eyes rest upon. You can make the experiment of holding meetings in a room where the colors are light and constructive, and you will have very much better feeling among those present than when you are in a room decorated with dark, destructive colors.

Mankind needs Happiness, Peace, Harmony, Opulence, Light, and Purity. Those Qualities exist only in the clean, clear, constructive colors. If you want the blessings which make you happy, you will have to get them from the only channel that contains them. You cannot get clean water from a dirty cup. You cannot have happiness nor prosperity from black, red, nor dirty destructive colors. Don't try it, because you cannot beat the Law of Energy and Vibration. No one ever did or ever will.

If you are a normal, straight-thinking individual and you want Happiness, Harmony, Light, Prosperity, and the good things which are on this planet for right use, then surround yourselves with white, gold, pink, violet, green, and blue in their clean, clear, most beautiful shades. The color of the clothing you wear very definitely affects your mind, body, and your pocketbook. The first requirement is harmony; and if you are to have the things you need, there must be a magnetic pull—or flow of energy—into your world on which come the things that you require. Then the colors of white, gold, pink, and green are the rates of vibration on which the things of the outer world come into your world.

White is cleanliness, purity, and harmony. That is fundamental, and the whole world needs more of it. Gold is the natural color tone of mankind, and the Sun's predominant color to our Earth is gold. The color of gold is the quality of Universal Divine Love, Peace, Happiness, and the supply of energy and the substance of Light from our Physical Sun. Everyone on Earth needs more of the color of gold to surround him and all he does. It gives joy, peace, poise, and balance, and also brings abundance.

Pink is needed as much as gold by all mankind on this Earth, because pink is the Divine Love and Compassion, and is the soothing, joyous feeling of Peace that everyone needs in the outer world's activities—and especially today. The radiation of pink is a Godsend to children and all who are extremely sensitive. Violet is the color that all mankind on the Earth need most at this time; for it purifies the substance and energy in the mental and feeling world of the individual, and consumes all that will not produce the Purity and Perfection of Life. That Almighty Power of Life in color is absolutely Almighty when understood and applied with Wisdom.
